York's Arch-Enemy.

Getting off to a flying start in the allimportant series against the league-leading Chicago Cubs, the Giants climbed within five points of the pinnacle by nosing out a Polo Grounds yesterday. The score was 2 to 2. A hit, the scratchiest of the scratchy kind, rang off the bat of Arthur Fletcher after two were out and the shades of night Tinker did the unexpected and played the ball poorly, letting Beals Becker score from third with the winning run.

Becker opened the tenth in an auspicious manner by hitting one to Zimmerman and beating the throw by a step. Richie added on Merkle's sacrifice bunt and throwing Fred out at first, when he could have caught Becker by ten feet at second. Dev was out, while Beals took third. The stand was in a frenzy when Fletcher strode to thur dribbled past the box and Joe Tinker swooped down on the hit. He overran the ball, however, and before he could recover Becker had crossed the plate, and Fletche had already touched first and was on his way to the clubhouse.

DETROIT BEATS YANKEES

Wins in Eleventh Inning, When Gardner Makes an Error.

WARHOP EASY FOR TIGERS

Jennings's Men Play Poor Baseball and Let New York Tie the Score in Seventh Inning.

Detroit, Aug. 21.-The Tigers railled this afternoon, and victously pounding Jack Warhop managed to squeak through with an eleventh inning victory. Two slow plays by the Yankee infield on bunts and a glaring error by Earl Gardner on an east Donovan, with three on bases and no one out, resulted in the loss of the game. The score was 5 to 4. The contest was by no means up to the standard usually set by Detroit, and fairly bristled with errors in judgment that do not appear in the score. The prize piece of boneheaded work was shown free of special charge in the first inning. the sign was given for a double steal. Hal was nipped off third, but Jim Dele hanty tried to run Hal down unassisted. Chase was too fleet of foot, however, and he scored a step in front of his pursuer In the hope of capturing the second game of the series, Chase sent Jack Warhop out on the mound. The little fireman was not at his best, however, and had Detroit played real baseball they would have won asily in the regulation time. Eleven hits were made by Detroit. Gainer broke up the game in the eleventh y lacing a single to centre. Bauman then aid down a bunt, which was fielded slowly, Sainer heating the throw to second, and all ands were safe. Stanage kept up the good work and bunted. Gainer was once more the object of the play, but slid safely Sallee Leads St. Louis to Victory into third. Donovan rolled an easy grounder to Gardner, while Gainer dashed for the plate. Earl became flustered and booted the ball around the field, Gainer scoring. Jennings shifted his line-up. Jones was benched and Bush was placed at the head of the order and Cobb and Crawford were noved up a peg. Cobb had a busy time of t out in centre and pulled down four hard hit balls, while Drake had an equally stren ious day of it in left. Sam Crawford was the hitting star of the game and made three hits in five times at bat. With one out in the first Hemphill was assed and Chase singled past third. Cres anned, but Hemphill scored when Knight Chase took third on the wallop and he counted a moment later when he induced Delehanty to chase him down the lines to the plate. Somewhat disgruntled, the Tigers put a run over in the ond inning. Drake walked, took second when Gainer bunted safely, and counted when Bauman slashed a savage single to Plunging out in the lead, Detroit scored hree runs in the fifth. Warhop passed Donavan and Bush lofted to Wolter. Cobb with his usual courtesy, doubled to right centre, putting Donovan on third. Crawford obliged with a line single to centre, and the Georgia Peach dashed over the plate a step behind the panting Donovar Old "Wahoo Sam" stole second and scored when Drake singled to left field.

Loose work by Detroit allowed the Yankees to come up on even terms in th seventh inning.
